World

' - - using CloprBottle NFTs, adding utility to your NFTs (<https://app.cloprnft.com/>)

✓ Coordinated a global tech pipeline across the USA, Georgia, France, and Argentina, I led teams to integrate blockchain and AI. I managed the lifecycle of the blockchain application from inception to launch, ensuring product cohesion.

✓ In devising our data collection strategy, I worked with Hollywood scriptwriters to develop a standardized story template for efficient data mining. This enabled effective AI model fine-tuning.

✓ Leading the integration of AI technology with blockchain, I spearheaded the deployment of smart contracts co-authored by myself. This pioneering effort resulted in the creation of a groundbreaking platform for generating token-bound tokens within the NFT ecosystem.

✓ I crafted comprehensive whitepapers and technical specifications, streamlining regulatory compliance and legal clarity for users. This facilitated trademark registration and defined platform terms and conditions.

✓ Implementing streamlined feedback processes, I automated user feedback mechanisms to encompass the entirety of the tech pipeline and beyond. This ensured that no valuable information was overlooked, providing insights crucial for understanding and prioritizing tech initiatives effectively.

Galette Café Saint Germain

Founder and former CEO (Restaurant sold)

September 2012 - December 2023 (11 years 4 months)

2 rue de l'université, Paris, France

" " , . The mission is straightforward: to honor the culinary heritage of Brittany by showcasing the finest organic, artisanal products sourced from local producers.

✓ Built a Concept from Scratch: I conceptualized and established Galette Café, laying its foundation from the ground up.

✓ Built a Reputation: My dedication to excellence garnered us multiple prestigious awards, including the coveted "Best Restaurant" recognition from Trip Advisor.

✓ Built an Anti-Fragile Business: Amidst social and economic challenges, Galette Café stood resilient, navigating through uncertainties with grace.

✓ Not Afraid of Pivoting: Adapting to evolving consumer trends and technological advancements, I ensured Galette Café remained at the forefront of the market.

✓ Sustained Business Growth: Over a span of 12 years, I sustained consistent growth and profitability.

✓ Staff Cohesion: Fostering a cohesive team environment, I nurtured a dedicated workforce, achieving remarkable staff retention rates and fostering a positive workplace culture.
